Adopt a Classroom and support News In Education

What better way to prepare students for the real world than by giving them learning tools that are updated daily!

Cape Cod students

are using the Cape Cod Times News in Education program to study and compare cultures by reading folktales, myths and legends from around the world. They are honing their geography, math, language arts and character education skills by following the NCAA basketball teams during March Mania. Many classes are using the newspaper to study weather patterns locally and globally. NIE also helps students enhance their critical reading skills, become better consumers and develop a deeper awareness of the world around them.

These programs and much more are available to Cape and islands classrooms at NO COST, thanks to the generosity of local businesses and readers like you! The Cape Cod Times underwrites 75% of the cost of these educational programs and services.

You can sponsor a class for one month for as little as $25.00 at one of the following schools that participate in our News in Education programs. As a token of our heartfelt appreciation, we will include your name in our "Adopt-a-Classroom" ad in the Cape Times for the entire school year.

MORE THAN ONE SPONSOR PER SCHOOL IS PERMITTED.

Dear Mr. Monahan,
Thank you for your generous donation on behalf of Provincetown High School to the Cape Cod Times' Newspaper in Education program. Through your abundant kindness and magnanimity, our teachers were able to participate in this invaluable program without financial limitations. Our students directly benefited from your gift by reading a daily newspaper. ■■
